COUNTY ELECTION RETURNS BROUGHT IN THIS MORNING

The following boxes were brought in this morning and makes the list complete.

Vanoss—Cruce 52, McNeal 12; Mitchell 50, Chapman 13. For amendment 34, against 34.

Beebe—Cruce 32, McNeal 20; Mitchell 23, Chapman 27. For amendment 1, against 31.

Lanham—Cruce 33, McNeal 9; Mitchell 10, Chapman 22. For amendment 10, against 28.

Sunshine—Cruce 36, McNeal 4; Mitchell 33, Chapman 7. For amendment 24, against 25.

Daggs—Cruce 57, McNeal 18; Mitchell 43, Chapman 34. For amendment 35, against 32.

Allen—Cruce 92, McNeal 63; Mitchell 89, Chapman 64.

Unless we have had some error in adding these figures, Cruce received 1,905 votes in the county. McNeal 761 and Cumbie 119. Cruce's plurality 1,144.

Ada Bar Remembers Judge West.

This morning Judge West completed his work here, and as this is the last time he will hold court at Ada, the local bar, as a token of the esteem in which he is held by its members, presented him with a fine sterling silver handled umbrella, suitably engraved. On behalf of his colleagues Hon. Tom D. McKown made the presentation speech which was responded to with some feeling by Judge West. He assured the attorneys that he would always remember the Ada bar as being composed of honorable, upright men who had shown their friendship to him in many ways.

Mrs. S. N. Diltz of Craven, La., is visiting her friend, Miss Cleo Beta.

CRUCE'S PLURALITY 20,000 OR 25,000

HIGH LICENSE AMENDMENT APPEARS TO HAVE LOST.

The democratic state committee still maintains that Cruce's plurality will be around 35,000. Partial returns in today's Oklahoma give him a little better than 13,000. Not more than half of the state remains to be accounted for, and it looks like 20,000 at the lowest calculation. McNeal still refuses to concede his defeat, claiming his election by 5,000 or 6,000. However, as he and Harris have already begun their howl about stealing the election, it is a pretty safe bet that the figures will show the plurality mentioned or even better.

The Oklahoma says that the booze bill is still unsettled. Both sides claim the victory by 30,000 and as a number of counties are claimed by both sides, it may be said that it is a trifle uncertain which side has won, although on the face of it, the prohibitionists appear to have won by 15,000.

Republicans at Guthrie in Gloom.

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 9.—Gloom reigns supreme at republican state headquarters here. Jim Harris, state chairman and J. W. McNeal are both out with statements blaming the grandfather clause for the democratic victory and trying to figure out the next legislature.

The apparent gains of legislators in Noble, Payne and Osage are more than offset by the losses in Muskogee, Wagoner, Seminole and Atoka and the republican claim of controlling the lower house has already vanished.

SOCIALIST VOTE IN PONTOTOC COUNTY

The 30 boxes thus far brought in show a total of 312 votes for Cumbie, the socialist nominee for governor. The other six may possibly bring the total up to 400. In 1907 Ross, the nominee for governor, polled 244 votes in the county, and in 1908 Debs for president received 579.

Boych, the nominee of the prohibition party for governor received 31 votes in the above mentioned boxes. LATER—The remaining six boxes swell the socialist vote to 404.

Methodists to Convene Today.

Ardmore, Okla., Nov. 9.—The annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, will convene here tomorrow morning. The greater number of the delegates arrived today and have been busy with the preliminaries of the session.

One of the important questions to come up for consideration is the division of this into two independent conferences. Including the officers and laymen that attend as delegates the membership has grown to more than 500 and many of the church people are of the opinion that better results could be obtained with two conferences.

The reorganization of all the standing committees and boards of the conference will also be had at this session. The Rev. C. E. Goddard, presiding elder of the Muskogee district, is here and states that he will report every assessment made upon the third district for every purpose paid in full.

When the first session is called to order tomorrow morning, Bishop Collins Denny will be in the chair.

Some Changes at the Court House.

Owing to the crowded condition of things at the court house, the commissioners rented the remaining rooms in the present building, and turned them over to the county attorney. The county clerk has moved into the big room at the head of the stairs which was at first intended for the county attorney, and the surveyor will share it with him. The room vacated by him will be used by the district judges and the superintendent has moved into the next room east of his old quarters.

DEMOCRATS HAVE MAJORITY OF 30

WILL GAIN SEVERAL SEATS IN SENATE.

The political upheaval of Tuesday was followed Wednesday by a general survey of the field, which disclosed with greater detail and precision, just what results had been accomplished.

Democratic Majority in House.

Later calculations on the National House of representatives, based on complete, but unofficial, returns, show that the democrats will have a safe working majority of thirty.

The outcome of the United States Senate is not definitely settled. The republicans are assured of sixteen new senators, which, with thirty-four holdover senators, gives them a total of fifty. The democrats are assured of fifteen new senators, which, with twenty-five holdovers, gives them a total of forty. Two senatorships are still in doubt, namely the successor of the late Mr. Dilliver in Iowa and of Mr. Carter in Montana where there is a prospect of a tie.

Situation in the Senate.

These determined totals, however, leave republican majority in the senate as follows: Total membership 92, necessary to majority 47, republicans 50, democrats 40, doubtful 2.

The fifteen republican senators considered assured are from California, Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan, Nevada, North Dakota, (2), Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

The fifteen democratic senators considered assured are from Florida, Indiana, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

Alabama. Local option defeated prohibition in Alabama. Emmett O'Neal (dem.) who opposed state-wide prohibition, was elected by 60,000 plurality.

Indiana.

By a democratic legislature being elected, Senator Beveridge has been defeated in Indiana and John W. Kern will probably be sent to the United States senate.

Oregon.

Complete returns from 267 out of 96 precincts in Oregon and from complete returns from 87 precincts, it is indicated that Oswald West (dem.) nominee for governor, has a lead of 1,702 over Jay B (rep.)

Delaware.

Late returns from throughout Delaware tonight show that the next legislature will be composed of thirty-one republicans and twenty-one democrats. United States Senator Henry du Pont (rep.) will be re-elected without opposition.

Missouri.

With half the vote counted in Missouri indications point to the defeat of prohibition by 175,000 majority. Reed defeats Francis for the senate by about 30,000. The democrats carry the state ticket and legislature.

Oklahoma.

Lee Cruce (dem.) has been elected governor of Oklahoma by about 30,000 over McNeal (rep.) A margin of more than 25,000 is shown on returns up to Thursday night.

Tennessee.

Hooper's majority over Taylor in Tennessee is placed at about 17,000. The legislature is close.

Hunting Party.

High McDaniel and his son Will, and a third party name unknown expect to start on a trip to the Kiamachi mountains the latter part of this week. High is a crack rifle and wing shot. When they get in among the big game and fish of these wilds there will be something doing. High is an old timer and knows every foot of the Choctaw county like a native. The party proposes to stay it out and confidently expect to return with their trophies.

HOW THE SITUATION LOOKS

WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT PROBABLY LOST.

Fifty counties at 11 o'clock last night reported a total vote of approximately 60,000 for Cruce and 40,000 for McNeal. The returns from only about 10 per cent of these counties were complete. Mr. Cruce's election is assured by a plurality of fully 30,000 and the estimates of the day previous of 35,000 probably is not far wrong. He claims a plurality of 30,000 and the returns received at state democratic headquarters indicate that the figures are not far wrong.

State Republican Chairman Harris has made no statement but he has indicated that the committee concedes the victory to Cruce. Mr. McNeal has not yet made such a concession, since his first important figures came from the heaviest republican counties of the north side.

The local option measure was defeated by 15,000. This appears to be a conservative estimate in view of the fact that the local option forces were defeated in both Muskogee and Tulsa counties by small majorities, and are unable in any other counties, particularly on the western side, to bring up a total that looks encouraging. They had calculated on majorities in those counties having cities and large towns that would overcome the opposition vote in the rural precincts of those counties and that vote in the counties that would give the opposition a majority. Reports giving actual returns on the amendment are meager and an estimate must be made on the majorities of a few counties and the condition brought about by the failure of the city vote to overcome that of the rural precincts.

The indications are that the women's suffrage measure has been defeated. Reports from over the eastern side, which to a large extent are unaccompanied by official figures, indicate that a heavy vote was cast against the measure. Enough figures are not available on which to base an estimate of the result on the other state questions.

Elmer L. Fulton, democrat, claims a victory over D. T. Morgan, republican incumbent in the second congressional district, and the figures obtainable indicate that the claim is well grounded. Morgan's majorities in the republican counties were small, while some of the democratic counties gave Fulton larger majorities.

The election of James Davenport in the Third district is no longer in doubt. His majority probably is 1,500.

At state democratic headquarters last night reports had been received from sixty-one counties which indicated, unofficially that the total majority for Cruce in those counties was about 25,000.

It is reported that the democrats claim the First congressional district for N. E. McNeill of Pawnee, and that McGuire's election, if he has a majority of the votes on the face of the returns, will be contested. A contest in the second district is probable also.

Probably sixty-five of the seventy-seven counties have gone democratic and the third legislature is likely to have about eighty democrats and nineteen republicans in the house. Democratic gains probably have been made in the senate.

DR. TERHUNE WILL BE HERE THIS EVENING

This evening the citizens of Ada, who enjoy a high grade lecture, will have the opportunity to hear Dr. Thos. B. Terhune, one of the masters of the lecture platform. He is a man who always makes good.

His carefully acquired art of lucid phraseology, his ability to make the discussion of the weighty question of the day clear and attractive, and a gift of eloquent speaking that appeals to the culture and intellect of all who hear him, and yet entertains while it instructs and edifies, make him a speaker of intellectual rank and platform standing. A Kentuckian by birth, he has all the fire of southern oratory and the finish of the student. Serving a most successful pastorate, the little time he can devote to the platform will be an opportunity to speak a wider message, to face a larger outlook and to broaden a life's work into a greater field of usefulness. 185-ltd

McGOVERN CHOSEN AND LA FOLLETTE IS SAFE

Wilwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—United States Senator La Follette, Republican, will be re-elected to the upper house of congress by the legislature elected in Wisconsin today, which, from the returns received up to 10 o'clock tonight will be safely republican.

The election of Francis F. McGovern, republican, governor, is claimed by the republican state central committee as a safe plurality, though by a considerably reduced plurality compared with the vote of two years ago, when Governor Davidson, republican, defeated John A. Aylward, democrat, by 80,000.

Eight republicans and one democrat (Sixth district) have been elected to congress.

Bancroft, republican candidate for attorney general appears to be re-elected over the La Follette candidate Charles H. Crownhart of Superior for that office, who is running as an independent republican.

The Social Democrats are making gains in Milwaukee county and claim they will elect their county ticket.

A Small Fire.

Early this morning the house occupied by C. O. Bills, about a mile northeast of town, caught fire from the kitchen and came near burning. Mr. Bills was not at home at the time, but Carlton Weaver, Charley Ray and three men bringing cotton to town, and whose names we failed to learn, hastened to the place and by hard work managed to quench the fire, although not before some damage was done. The water supply was very small and had two or three more buckets been needed, the house would have been burned.

LET US HAVE PEACE.

The election is over and for four years Cruce will be governor. The people have passed judgment on six measures of public interest. For the past five years Oklahoma has been kept in a turmoil of politics as a result of which business has suffered.
Republican politicians and papers for the sake of partisan advantage, have besmirched the good name of the state and done its reputation damage that will require the healing touch of time several years to cure. However, this is no time for recrimination or for dwelling in the past. Our eyes should be towards the future.
What we need is less agitation, either for any political party or for any initiated measure while the people give their undivided attention to business and the development of the country. We have a state of which we may all be proud. All of us are in the same boat and for the next four years should bend over the oars
as one man.

Throw the professional agitator
overboard see that there is no place reserved in the craft for the man who will not pull.

For the first time in his life Roosevelt refuses to talk. The next question to be settled between himself and Taft is which caused the disaster Tuesday. It is uncertain just how Roosevelt's political future will be affected by the result. If the country at large comes to regard the defeat in New York as being due to the desire of the people to administer him a severe rebuke, it will prove his Waterloo, but if it is charged up to Taft it may prove a boost to Teddy after all. On the face of it, however, it looks like Teddy has been squashed.

Well, boys, we are entitled to crow over the election for the remainder of the week. Then it will be time to get busy on some plan to boost Ada and see if there is anything in the way of an industrial enterprise that can be had. We may not be able to hand anything as big as the cement plant, they are not as a rule running about loose, but a small beginning may soon grow into something of which we may be proud.

Now that the general election has been disposed of, the next question for Ada to pass on is the matter of commission government. This is not a political question, however, and should be easily settled. The only thing is to elect good men to write the charter for the town.

The result in Tennessee Tuesday cannot be charged up as a democratic defeat. Southern people simply will not submit to machine rule, and that was the shortest route to the overthrow of the dictatorship of Pattersen and his machine.

It occurs to us that instead of trying to tax bachelors as some people advocate, there should be organized a few bachelors' aid societies. That would do more towards thinning their ranks than anything else we know of.

The republicans managed to vote
the negroes in considerable numbers in the First and Second congressional districts, but the question arises:
will their defiance of the law profit them anything? They failed to elect their governor, and both Morgan's and McGuire's seats are likely to be contested on the ground of illegal voting. Numerous subordinate officials elected on the face of the returns may also be ousted. That is sure to happen in the case of members of the legislature. It seldom pays to defy any law, whether you like it or not.

The socialists told us sometime ago that they would poll 1400 votes in Pontotoc county, and from the amount of racket they had been making one would not have been much surprised if they had done very well.
In spite of all their strenuous campaigning, however, they are nearly 50 votes behind their vote of two years ago. Fourteen cent cotton is not very good for socialism anyway.

Dr. Cook Never Near Pole?

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Dr. Frederick A.
Cook was discredited further in a special cable dispatch to the Chicago Daily News today from its correspondent in Copenhagen, Denmark.
The story was the first publication of the report of Knud Rasmussen,
the Danish explorer, as sent by him to his wife in Copenhagen and now given out by her.

Contained in the story is what purports to be the statements of Cook's two Eskimo companions in the Polar quest, Itkusuk and Apilak, in which they confirm Commander Robert E. Peary's charge that Cook traveled in a circle and never even approached the pole.

Rasmussen in the story is quoted as saying he himself did not interview the men, but that their statements were taken by the Rev. Gustav Olsen and Kateket Sechmann Rosebach, missionaries born in Greenland and at the time of securing the statements, working in the country from which Cook claimed to have started for the Pole.

Fusionists Carry Tennessee.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 9.—The latest figures given out at fusion headquarters on the governor's race place
the majority of Ben W. Hooper, republican, at 17,900. State Democratic Chairman Vertrees alleged that fraud
has been committed by the republicans in East Tennessee, but the opposition says there is absolutely no grounds for such a charge. It is not yet possible to give totals on the vote for governor or even approximately so. The legislature is very close, both sides claiming it. The democrats claim nineteen out of 33 senators and 49 out of 99 representatives, with a chance for one or two more.

The socialist candidate for congress in the Sixth District received 1,713 votes in Davidson county, but his vote in other counties was light.
The socialist vote in the state is but little if any greater than in 1908.

Women Raid Joints at Lexington.

Lexington, Ok., Nov. 8.—Fifteen of the leading church women of this town today conducted five raids on places which they believe to be bootlegging establishments, seizing two full cases of whiskey and other wet goods.

The women started on their work
about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, after having worked all day at the polls attempting to switch votes to the prohibition cause.

When the voters thinned out the women apparently decided that their efforts could be more successfully directed elsewhere, and organizing a company with one of their number at the front carrying a prohibition banner, started out on their raiding.

After the liquor was seized the women took it to the center of the city and smashed the bottles in the street.

No resistance was offered.

Change Senators in Nine States.

In at least nine states, and possibly in as many as twelve, democratic legislatures were chosen Tuesday where republicans were in possession previously. As a result of this change it is probable that the present republican senators from these state will be succeeded by democrats when the joint ballots are taken.

The nine states in which the political color of the legislature was changed are: Indiana, Maine, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio and West Virginia. The same results have possibly obtained in also Iowa, Connecticut and Delaware, though these three are more likely still in the republican column in legislative leanings.

MADDOX-TORBETT WEDDING

Yesterday evening at 8:30 at the First Baptist church, occurred the marriage of two of Ada's most popular young people, Mr. Joseph Franklin Maddox and Miss Gladys Bruce Torbett, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Torbett.

The church was elaborately decorated in palms, ferns and white chrysanthemums, the wedding bell being suspended in the center just in front of the embankment.

To the strains from Mendelssohn, played by Mrs. N. H. McCoy, of Ardmore, the bridal party entered; Messrs. Philip Thompson and C. W. Redman, Miss Eula Clare Sims and Mr. C. J. Warren, Miss Gladys Kyte and Mr. T. J. Boyd, Miss Clyde Thompson and Mr. Roy L. Wood, Miss Estelle Torbett, maid-of-honor, with Mr. Ed Haraway, who entered with the groom, the bride came in on the arm of her father.

The ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. C. Stubblefield.

The bride wore a white embroidered net robe over messaline princess en train, and carried arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Estelle Torbett, maid of honor, wore a pink embroidered net robe over pink messaline.

Miss Eula Clare Sims was gown-ed in pink marquisette over pink messaline, with pink satin streamers.

Miss Clyde Thompson's costume was pink marquisette over pink Persian slip, with jewel trimmings.

Miss Gladys Kyte's robe was of pink chiffon over taffeta, with braided trimmings.

Each of the maids wore short veils outlined with pink rose petals and carried arm bouquets of bridesmaid's roses.

Mrs. S. M. Torbett, mother of the bride, wore a becoming gown of berry chiffon.

The bride has grown from girlhood to early womanhood in our midst. Her natural grace and sweet temper and the accomplishments which she has acquired during her years of careful training, have served to make her a prime favorite in the best circles not only of Ada, but of Ardmore and, in fact, wherever she is known. She is indeed a young woman whom any man might consider himself extremely fortunate to win.

The groom is president and general manager of the Mad-ox Drug Co., holding rank as one of the most successful business men of Ada, as well as one of the most exemplary in his everyday life and in his dealings with his fellow men.

Immediately after the wedding, a reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Torbett.

The interior decorations were superb, the reception hall and drawing room in colonial style, festooned with smilax and chrysanthemums, in the drawing room was a canopy of flowers under which the bride stood; the library in southern moss, a bank of autumn leaves and moss was in the rear of the hall, from whence came strains by the orchestra. The dining room was particularly pretty, festooned in smilax and an immense bouquet of brides roses in the center of the table.

The guests were received by Mrs. Duncan. After being presented to Mr. and Mrs. Torbett they were introduced to the out-of-town house guests: Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bruce, Mrs. S. C. Torbett, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Maddox, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Bruce, Mrs. N. H. McCoy, Mrs. T. Y. Morgan.

Mrs. LeFevre and Mrs. Kice presided at the register, which was a beautifully hand-painted one.

Mrs. Croxton received in the drawing room, where the guests were introduced to the bride and groom and the bridal party.

Mesdames Galbraith, Furman and Beck received in the library, where the presents were displayed. The gifts were magnificent. A long table in the center of the room was laden with cut glass, another table with silver, china, etc., and besides there were some handsome pieces of furniture, in fact it seemed that friends and loving relatives had thought of every article that would complete the furnishings of the beautiful home, which was the gift of the bride's father.

In the dining room, Mesdames Mason, Rodarmel, Hope, Simpson, Neathery and Conn served brick cream molded in pink and white heart shape, with cake and mints.

Miss Irene Mason stood at the exit.

Perhaps the most enjoyable feature of the hour for the bridal party was cutting the wedding cake after which the bride threw her bouquet which was caught by Miss Kyte.

Tuesday the citizens of Bryan county voted on the question of issuing $160,000 courthouse and jail bonds. Apparently the measure was not very popular, for it lost by a vote of more than 2 to 1. Every town in the county, except Durant and Colbert, voted against the bonds. At Bennington the vote was 25 for and 238 against the bonds.

University Students Study Negro Problem.

Now that the "grandfather clause" is receiving so much comment from the press and attention from the public because the bi-ennial election has just been held and several thousand illiterate negroes have for the first time been denied the right of suffrage in the state, the black man and his problems are receiving more than their usual share of attention from citizens who think. The latest manifestation of this fact is the organization of a class under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association at the University of Oklahoma, to study "Negro Life in the South," devoting particular attention to the negro problem as presented in those sections of the country where the percentage of blacks is greatest. The work will be given by Dr. Jerome Dowd, professor of economics and sociology at the University. Dr. Dowd has written several books dealing with the negro from a sociological standpoint and is recognized as one of the best authorities on the subject in the United States.

Negro Girl Hit on the Head.

About 8 o'clock yesterday evening piercing screams were heard from the direction of North Broadway. Nightwatchman Brady and a number of others who happened to be along Main street ran in the direction from which the cries came, and on the sidewalk near the corner of Broadway and 9th, found a negro girl who said she had been struck over the head by two white boys. She seemed to be worse scared than hurt, however, and was able to walk home. We are informed that the girl works at Mrs. Prewett's and was on her way home at the time the assault occurred. The boys made good their escape before the officers arrived.

Durham-Asbury.

Yesterday evening Judge H. J. Brown performed the ceremony that united Mr. Howell Durham and Miss Myrtle Asbury in marriage. The wedding took place at Charley Ray's and was witnessed by a number of friends who made the event one to be remembered. The bride has lived most of her life in and near Ada. She is possessed of a most charming personality that has made her a favorite with a large and intimate circle of friends. The groom is a rising young mechanic who hails originally from Tennessee, the state that has sent so many noted men to help build up other and newer states.

We join their many friends in wishing them happiness.

ALL BACHELORS SELFISH

Young Women Agree That the American Young Men of Today Are Not Trained for Matrimony.

The American bachelor makes a mighty poor sort of a husband, according to the opinion of a great many young women from all parts of the country. The following are some of their opinions:

"Most mothers make life for the future wives one eternal stoop after tossed-away matches and collars."

"Those who have lived at home in a large family are much better prepared for matrimony than those who live in bachelor quarters."

"Have to catch them early and then tame them."

"All men are self-centered and vain—most of them uninteresting and dull besides."

"The young men of today are rightly brought up for the old-fashioned girl who was a humble, submissive little thing; but they are not yet trained to meet peacefully the independence of the twentieth century girl who has taken over some of the authority."

I cannot conceive of a girl who has known men from other cities ever thinking of marrying the typical Washington (D. C.) man, who feels he is incurring his lifelong gratitude if he accepts an invitation to dine at her house and who is perfectly willing to accept all the hospitality she will offer without feeling under any obligations whatever."

"Young men today seem inconsequential, weak, nice enough for dancing partners or to go to the theater with, but not what a girl feels she can risk her life on."

"If the girl of the present has been badly brought up from the masculine point of view, the young man of the day, from the woman's point of view, is a horror—utterly unfitted to be a husband because he is unsympathetic, not courteous, self-sufficient. Bachelor apartments have done it."—Good Housekeeping Magazine.

Spelling and Predestination.

In the before-the-war time, of which Marion Harland has told so much in her recently published autobiography, even school children were expected to profit by discourses on future punishment. "One day," writes Marion Harland, "the word 'Heaven' fell to me to spell and define. This done, the 'improvement' followed in Mrs. Bass' best class-meeting tone: 'Heaven! I hope you may get there, Virginia.' You ought not to fall of abundant entrance, for your parents are devout Christians and set you a good example! Next! 'Heavenly.' Near the foot of the column stood 'Hell.' Anne Carus rendered it with modest confidence. But Mrs. Bass was not to be cheated of her application. 'Hell!' She iterated in accents that conveyed the idea of receding from an abyss. 'Ah-h-h! I wonder which of our little scholars will lie down in everlasting burnings!' Another pupil cried out: 'Mercy! I hope I won't.' The teacher's groan was that of a trained exhorter: 'I can't answer for that, Betty, if you will dance and go to balls!' But the author adds that the child took it all very much 'as a matter of course.'—Harper's Weekly.

The Game of Politics.

The game of politics, like chess, of ancient and obscure origin. Its invention, however, is usually ascribed to the devil. It was played with varying success among the Egyptians and Babylonians, and has continued in favor down to the present day. On one side is the public, on the other the politicians. "Now, watch carefully!" says the latter, and nonchalantly he manipulates the walnut shells. The problem is then for the public to guess under which shell the pea is: Or, to change the figure, the game may be likened to the marriage service, in which the politician swears to love, honor and obey the public. Within a week, however, the bride usually proceeds to Reno.

"Trust your public affairs to me," says the politician, "and I will manage them to the best of my ability, waste your money, raise the tax rate and corrupt the legislature. And what will I charge for all that? Oh, a mere bagatelle—the difference between what things are worth and what you pay for them."

Is it any wonder the public holds such a man in honor and esteem?—Life.

Everybody Ate Royal Hams.

"The most successful swindlers," said James R. Keene at a dinner at Saratoga during the races, "are those that have a basis of honesty. It's like the story of King Edward's pigs."

"At Sandringham, you know, King Edward raised prize swine, prize bullocks, and all manner of fancy live stock. Well, there was a fashionable West-end butcher, who bought all the king's fat swine every year at a simply enormous price, and a reporter said to this butcher one day: 'How can you afford to pay such prices for the royal swine?'"

"Well, you see," said the butcher, with a wink of the eye, "the king's pigs have a lot of legs."

Q. E. D.

A member of the faculty of a New England university tells of a freshman who was asked by one of the professors whether he had proved a certain proposition in Euclid.

"Well, sir," responded the freshman, "proved" is a strong word. But I will say that I have rendered it highly probable."—Harper's Magazine.
